HOLLINGSWORTH FAMILY

682

The Hollingsworths came originally from Hollingsworth Manor, Cheshire, England, where they had lived since 1022 A.D. They were an old Saxon family. Some branches of this family remained in England, and at least one branch went to Ireland. The progenitor of the American Hollingsworths was Valentine Hollingsworth, who was born in the County Armagh, Ireland, in 1622. He first married Ann Ree in 1655 by whom he had four children: Mary (1656-1746), Henry (1658-1721), Thomas (1661-1723), and Catherine (1663-1746). Ann Ree Hollingsworth died in 1671, and in 1672, Valentine Hollingsworth married Ann Calvert of County Armagh, Ireland. By the second marriage he had the following children: Samuel (born 1673), Enoch (1675-1687), Valentine, Jr. (1677-1757), Ann (born 1680), John (1684-1722), Joseph (born 1686), and Enoch II (1688-1690).

Valentine Hollingsworth and his family migrated from Ireland to America in 1682 and settled on a thousand acre plantation on Shelpot Creek, Brandywine Hundred near Castle County, Delaware, five miles northeast of the present Wilmington, Delaware. He was a member of the Society of Friends. He was a member of the first Assembly of Pennsylvania in 1682-83 and served in several sessions down to 1700. He was a signer of Penn's Great Charter and a member of the Provincial Council. His second wife died in 1697 and he died in 1711. Both are buried in the old burial ground at Newark, Delaware.

Henry Hollingsworth, eldest son of Valentine, born in Ireland on September 7, 1658, came to America in 1683. He was a surveyor and, with the help of Thomas Holmes, laid out the City of Philadelphia. He was a large landowner in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and New Castle County, Delaware. He was sheriff of Chester County, Clerk of the Court, and was a member of the Assembly of Pennsylvania. In 1711-12 Henry Hollingsworth moved to Elkon, Cecil County, Maryland, and was appointed Surveyor of the County by Lord Baltimore, 1712.

Henry Hollingsworth was married on August 22, 1688, in County Armagh, Ireland, to Lydia Atkinson and to them were born six children: Ruth (born 1689), Stephen (born

Henry, married Anne—, and sometime prior to 1734 he settled in Orange County, Virginia. He patented a tract of land on Muddy Creek, Duplin County (then New Hanover) in 1745. In 1735 he moved to Bladen County and then to Duplin County about 1746. They had the following children: Henry, who married Mary Murrah (Murray); Lydia, who married first John Ross and second William Jolliffe, Jr.; James who married Elizabeth Thomas; Zebulon; Valentine; and Timothy.

Zebulon, Valentine, and Timothy Hollingsworth moved from Duplin County to St. George's Parish (Screven County), Georgia in 1770. In 1769, Valentine Hollingsworth sold his plantation in what is now Piney Grove Township, Sampson County, to James Wright. All three brothers married and had families. Clyde D. Hollingsworth of Sylvania, Georgia, published a book in 1952 entitled "The Hollingsworth Family of Screven County, Georgia."

Henry Hollingsworth, son of Stephen, received his first land grant in Duplin County (then New Hanover) in 1741. He married Mary Murrah (Murray) of Duplin County. Henry Hollingsworth was a vestryman of St. Gabriel's Parish, Duplin County. Henry and Mary Hollingsworth had the following children: Nancy who married a Mr. Wright; James who married Betsey Merriitt; Zebulon who married Elizabeth Chesnutt; Elizabeth who married Alexander Chesnutt; Mary (1753-1822) who married James Faison; Charity who married Cannon Caison; Sarah who married David Chesnutt; Lydia who married Hardy Carroll; and Henry who married Elizabeth Griggs.

Zebulon Hollingsworth, son of Henry and Mary, soldier of the American Revolution, married Elizabeth Chesnutt, a daughter of Jacob Chesnutt, and lived on a plantation south of Turkey where Jim Hines now lives. He and his family are buried there. They had the following children: Stephen (born 1794), who married Elizabeth Colwell; Henry (born 1798) who married Mary Carroll; Jacob who married Catherine Treadwell; Edith who married Joseph Carroll and lived at Thomasville, Georgia; Jane who married Richard Colwell; Mary who married Thomas Vann; Annie; and Elizabeth who married John Kelly and lived in Florida.

Henry Hollingsworth, son of Henry and Mary, soldier of the American Revolution, lived on a plantation south of Turkey, adjoining his brother Zebulon's place. He married Elizabeth Griggs. They had the following children: Zebulon who married Mary Winters; Leonard who married Catherine Carlton; Guilford who married Rebecca Carlton; Frances who married first William Smith and second Uriah Bass; Elizabeth who married Jacob Hollingsworth, a son of James Hollingsworth; and Nancy who married Bennett W. Ballard (See Ballard Family History).

Gabriel and Mary Caison Holmes, who moved from Edgecombe County, North Carolina to Duplin County (now Sampson) in the 1750's and settled on Gilmore Swamp. After he became an adult, Owen Holmes served for many years as Register of Deeds of Sampson County. He married Ann "Nancy" Clinton, the daughter of Richard and Penelope Kenan Clinton. They settled on a plantation north of Clinton and built a home about where the Beaunit Plant is now located. He built the watermill which was later known as the William's Mill on the Dunn road.

Owen and Ann Clinton had the following children: Gabriel (1786-1848), James (1788-1861), Owen (1795-1840), Penelope; Richard Clinton (1802-1884), Hardy (1804-1847), Mary who died unmarried; and Ann.

Vervaeke leaves Porter company; successor named

Paul K. DeBruhl of Laurel and Pittsburg, Pa. assumed duties Monday as works manager of H. K. Porter Company's refractories plant at Bayou Casotte.

DeBruhl, since December an assistant to the general manager of the refractories division in Pittsburg, succeeds R. G. Vervaeke who has left the company.

Vervaeke told the Chronicle he has no definite plans to announce.

DeBruhl, before joining H. K. Porter, was night superintendent of the Masonite Corporation plant at Laurel.

He said his family, still living in Laurel, will move to Pascagoula soon. He has a wife and two children.

DeBruhl, a 43-year-old veteran of World War II, is a graduate of Newberry College in South Carolina.

He served in the Army infantry, advancing to the rank of major, and was awarded the silver star for action at the Seine River in France.

In October 1944 he was wounded in action and returned to the United States.

Driver charged after cars crash on Highway 90

No serious injuries resulted in a two-car collision Saturday at Kreole Crossing on Highway 90.

State highway Ptn. L. C. Newell said John Sansing, 30, of 1401 S. Fernwood Drive, Pascagoula, was going west on Highway 90 when Pearl Moore, 46, of Mobile, pulled onto the highway and the autos collided.

Moore was charged with reckless driving, Newell said.

The Sansing's 22-month-old daughter was treated at Singing River Hospital and released.

Estimate was $300 damage to each car, the patrolman said.

2 Hollingsworths disappear in river Saturday afternoon

No hope was held Monday for two Pascagoula brothers missing since Saturday in the near-freezing waters of the river.

Chief deputy sheriff Harold Jones said Monday morning that "we don't think there's any chance of finding them alive."

Missing are W. C. (Junior) Hollingsworth, 31, and his brother Bob Hollingsworth, 22, both Ingalls employees.

A gasoline can to which Bob Hollingsworth was last seen clinging was found by searchers late Saturday.

The boat sank in West River about 4:30 p.m. Saturday, two miles south of Martin's Bluff.

A search by police officers, volunteers, sheriff's posse members and civil defense workers has been underway almost continuously since the men were reported missing.

A helicopter from Brookley AFB at Mobile flew over the Pascagoula marshes Sunday searching areas in which the men still might have been alive.

Junior Hollingsworth was described by Jones as an "excellent" swimmer. "I know that myself," said the chief deputy.

"I don't know about Bob, though. He was a very large man, about 285 pounds."

"It was awful cold in that water," said Jones, "as there was ice along the banks."

Bob had recently moved to Pascagoula from Atmore, Ala., living in a trailer near his brother in a park at Canty and Dupont.

Jones said that the brothers and Riley Luke, 30, Pascagoula, were heading north in the river in a small boat. They were fishing.

Aubrey L. Meaders assumes duties today as national director at High School.

He succeeds W. who resigned the effective Monday position with the Board in Jackson.

Meaders, who has a degree from Mississippi State University at Starkville, he also completed graduate work, has been a Pascagoula school trades instructor since 1958.

Cobb first joined the system in September 1957, employed as coordinator of diversified occupations and assumed duties as national director in 1959.

"We regret the loss of Mr. Cobb," said Virgil Cobb, assistant superintendent. "He has been an asset to the system."

Monday in Jackson, he became State Vocational Director with the A&I Board. He will work with superintendents of high schools and colleges over the state, training vocational and technical personnel, and acting as consultant to the board on vocational and technical matters.

was rescued, said he does not know what happened, Jones reported.

"The boat just sank," said Jones. "Luke said he didn't know if it tipped or there was a wave."

Jones said that the three men clung for a few minutes to a bow of the boat, which stayed a foot above water.

Luke, a strong swimmer, then left to seek help. He swam ashore into the marshes between the river mouths and began calling for help.

The last time he saw the brothers, he told Jones, was as they floated around a bend, Bob holding to a gas tank, Junior swimming. They were about 25 yards from shore.

Luke's calls were heard by two Kreole men — Claude Jones and Pat Walls — at their fishing camp in the marshes.

They built a fire for Luke and then went down river searching for the Hollingsworth brothers. They found only the can to which Luke had seen Bob clinging.

At Roy Borries' place, they called the sheriff's office and the search began. It has been underway almost continuously since.

Junior Hollingsworth, a riverer, came to Ingalls in 1952 from Atmore. He was married and had two daughters.

His brother Bob, a driller, was employed Dec. 1. He and his wife have a son.

Luke lives at 301 Columbus Drive. He has been an Ingalls welder since 1958.

Brothers' bodies are still missing after long search

An all-out weekend search of West Pascagoula River failed to produce the bodies of two brothers who drowned Jan. 13.

Chief deputy sheriff Harold Jones said several hundred volunteers searched the area where W. C. (Junior) Hollingsworth, 31, and his brother Bob Hollingsworth, 22, are believed to have gone down when their boat overturned.

Jones said a routine search will continue.

Citizens reminded deadline is near for tax payment

Payment of poll taxes was urged upon citizens today by Robert H. Oswald, Pascagoula, president of the Young Democrats of Mississippi.

Oswald pointed out in a statement released statewide that persons eligible to vote in the 1963 state elections will have to have poll tax receipts for the years 1961 and 1962.

"In the past," said Oswald, "many citizens have lost their right to vote by failing to pay their poll tax for the two years prior to the election.

"Jan. 31 is the deadline for payment of poll taxes for 1961."

Continue search for second body of boat tragedy

Search for the second of two brothers who drowned Jan. 13 continues as recovery of one body was made Tuesday.

Chief deputy sheriff Harold Jones said the body of Bob Floyd Hollingsworth, 22, surfaced in West Pascagoula River Tuesday at 9:30 a.m.

The body was discovered by Arthur McKenzie, member of a volunteer search party, near the scene of the boating tragedy which claimed two lives.

The search continues for W.
C. (Junior) Hollingsworth, 31.
Both were employed at Ingalls.

Flood lights and search parties are being used in an effort to locate the second body,
Jones said.

An inquest was held at Falls
Funeral Home in Pascagoula Tuesday. Coroner J. Leslie Nelson said a jury ruled death by accidental drowning.

Funeral and burial services

Wednesday.

attend opening classes and probably believe it is too late now to start.

There are normal growing pains that afflict any new college program, said Curtis Davis, coordinator of the program for Perkinston Junior College.

"For example," said Davis,
"only five people showed up Monday for the world history course, although many more than that signed up to begin study."

"If the minimum of 10 do not show up next Monday, the course will be dropped."

The same will hold true for all others of the 10 courses planned to be offered during the opening semester of the new program.

Persons who signed up for courses and failed to show up this week have the one more week in which to join their classes, Davis explained.

And, during the coming week, other persons who wish to join the classes may do so at the regular meeting time of each.

Classes are held from 6:30 to 9 p.m. in the Arts Building at the Fairgrounds on the following daily schedule:

Wednesdays, English, shorthand and differential calculus.

Thursdays, psychology, and Fridays, college algebra and speech.

Work done at the Pascagoula campus can lead to degrees.
Upperclass and graduate level work will be offered by Mississippi State University.

Three years of undergraduate work may be done locally, with only the senior year spent at MSU in Starkville.

A fuller summer program is being planned for this year, Davis said. Long range plans call for a full-time college program here.

A life-size painting of Gov.
Ross Barnett will be presented to Jackson County in a ceremony at the Courthouse Monday at 2:30 p.m.

ton said. Supervisors will accept the gift.

He said the body was clothed with the exception of shoes.

A passing tug boat the Lynn Park of New Orleans was hailed by Harris. The tug radioed Coast Guard at Pascagoula.

An estimated $225,000 damage to property in Jackson County resulted Tuesday from two fires 20 miles apart.

A 5 p.m. fire damaged the main factory building of The Fish Meal Co., a menhaden plant on the west bank of Es-

Point.

Gilbert Smith, one of the company's owners, said it is not known how the fire was started. Welders were work-

"A spark could have caused the fire," he said. "Total dam-

We are just estimating about

Also damaged by the fire which spread was the Twin motel owner, said damage was about $20,000.

Both businesses were par-

the owners said.

The fire is believed to have started in the restaurant kitch-

Hello Jim, I think Betty Rogers told you I'd be in touch. I'm Ken Hollingsworth, the Jackson County coordinator for the MSGenWeb project. We're a Web based organization that is concerned specifically with doing genealogy on the network. The MSGenWeb is the Mississippi branch of the USGenWeb project, which oversees all of the states. Each state has its own group which is broken down into the individual counties. We provide, at no cost to the user, a place to post queries and list surnames being researched and offer links to other places on the net with data for researching.

I'm proud to say, Jim, that MS is among the first 3 states to completely assign all 82 counties. Of course, this includes D.C., which is only one county. If you'd like to learn more about our setup and organization, you might like to visit me at my Jackson County page. It's at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~msjackso/> Just copy/paste this URL into your browser.

A little bit about myself, FYI. I was born in Jones Co in 1948, about 12 miles out of Ellisville in the community of Boggy. Actually, I think it was Oak Bowery, but gained the nickname of Boggy for obvious reasons. ;-) While in the 5th grade, my family moved to Pascagoula so Daddy could work in the shipyard. They have been there ever since. Pascagoula is home to us now. I graduated from PHS in 1966.

What we at the MSGenWeb are trying to accomplish at this time, is to gain a closer relationship with the county genealogy societies and organizations.

All of this new-fangled computer and Web stuff is not easy to accept by some of the genealogy society members. It's way over their head in their opinion, and those seem to reject it at every turn. We want to offer a webpage for the use of the Gen Socs. We have a very talented lady among us who can build you a web page that is very user friendly and will benefit you in many ways. This will help you as a gen soc by giving you a place to post messages to those who are on-line, as well as a place to list the publications you have to sell for fund raising.

One other thing, Jim, I can't believe that it wouldn't help your membership base grow. For instance, I'm now in CA, am a member of your gen soc, and enjoy researching in Jackson Co. by using the computer to stay in touch with people like Betty, Mr Jim Taylor of Hurley, and many others. These folks, I probably would not have had the pleasure of meeting if not for the computer and being on-line.

I think this little project, win, lose or draw, will succeed. Many county gen socs are taking us up on it. Could it be possible to link all of them together in the near future? Just imagine how exciting that would be, Jim. As we all have experienced, our ancestors of the early 19th Century were migrating all over the state. From county to county. If it weren't them moving, then it was the county lines moving as more counties were being formed. We need this kind of connection to help us all research in other counties, wouldn't you agree?

As I've offered Flicka Smith in the Jones Co gen soc, which I'm also a member of, if you can't find someone to manage the site for you, I'll be glad to assist where I can. Since I'm sorta out of the picture of the day to day operation of the gen soc, it's the least I can do to help carry my share of the load. I look forward to moving back to Pascagoula in the next year or so, and will join in with the rest of you in overseeing the operation of the society.

One last thing to cover, Jim. The space on an ISP to put this page, assuming it would be accepted by the gen soc. I think if the President of the Jackson County Gen. Soc. were to contact Datasync (or any ISP who has local dialup service to Pascagoula) and ask for them to donate the space, they would probably do it. Think about it. They would gain the exposure of all the potential subscribers who visit your site. They might even ask that you put a small graphic such as "space provided by" type thing. If so, we could build that in for you. Offer it to them if they hessitate otherwise.

Jim, I've tried to cover all the questions here, but I'm sure many more will come up. If you know who in the society would be responsible for a decision like this, let me know, and I'll contact them. Betty suggested you because she has respect for your ability and knowledge in computers and the net. Let me know if you have other questions, and if I don't know the answers, I'll get them for you. What department did you retire out of? I was in the Purchasing Department on the West Bank from '72 until I came back to CA in '75. Also, I worked on East Bank from '66 till I joined the Air Force in '68. Was in Warehouse Dept over there. That was before there was a West Bank. Look forward to hearing from you. Thanks for your time.

Dear Jean,

Re Hollingsworth: My son-in-law's line appears to be as follows:

1. Valentine Hollingsworth b. 1632 Armagh, Ireland d. post 1710
New Castle Delaware came to America c. (1682?) by 1st wife Ann Ree
2. Henry Hollingsworth b. 1658 Ireland d. 1721 Cecil Co. Md.
m. Lydia Atkinson
3. Stephen Hollingsworth b. 1690 Chester Co. Pa d. 1748-54 N.Car.
m. 18 Feb. 1716 New Castle, Delaware Ann Robinson
4. Zebulon Hollingsworth d. before 1783 , m. Elizabeth Chesnutt, moved to Georgia, had brothers Henry, James, Valentine and Timothy.
5. Zebulon Hollingsworth m. 21 Nov 1817 Tatnall Co. Ga. to Phebe Sapp.
They are in Coffee Co. Ala by 1850 and survivors in Baldwin Co. Ala by (1869.) (Sorry about mistakes my fingers just don't want to cooperate.)
(1860)
6. Mary Hollingsworth b. Ga. 1832 m. Thomas Gavin b. 1826 S.Car. s/o Thomas Gavin b. 1790 N.Car.
7. Nathaniel Gavin b. 1854 Ala. m. Charlotte Virginia "Jennie" Bishop c/o Robert M. Bishop b. Feb 1824 Ala (parents N.Car.)
after his death she came to Biloxi, Miss. with second husband Jake Andrews
8. Leonard Jones Gavin b. 1889 Bon Secour, Ala, d. 1964 Biloxi m.
Mary Elizabeth "Mamie" Williams b. 1892 (Jan.?), Mobile, Ala
d/o George Williams and Valentina "Collis". I was told that George Williams was born in Germany and Valentina Collis in Cuba.
However yesterday I found them in 1900 census of Mobile Co. Ala at what looks like Hern Bay (location???) and census shows that both they and their parents were born in Ala. Also shows they had been married 17 years. The 1880 census of that county is pretty bad but I'm going to look at it the next chance I get.

(# 3 above - From Hollingsworth Register: Stephen had lands in Cecil Co.
Md. as well as in Orange Co. Va. and on Muddy Creek in New Hanover, Now Duplin Co around Cinquapin and Bealahville, near Bethel Church. Son Henry
m. Mary Murray or Murrah and had a large family. Also sons James who died in Duplin, Valentine and Zebulon, who moved, about 1769-70 to Georgia, and Timothy who was born about 1754 or about the time of Stephen's death, who later moved to Florida. (Many other records mention Duplin).)

I mentioned Sampson County because in the 1790 census the Hollingsworths are there along with the names Gavin and Bishop and I have a gut feeling that these people were related before they got to Alabama. At least by proximity if not by blood.

The Whitehead question is ~~is it a dilemma~~ (try again) a dilemma wrapped in an enigma. (There now I got that out.)

I've managed to ascertain the mother of my husband's ^{great} grandmother Martha Louise Whitehead by a stroke of pure luck as she is mentioned in the Revolutionary pension application on her grandfather Samuel Griffin Jr. who d. 1809 at Tensaw in what was then Baldwin Co. Ala. However the identity of her father has eluded me. Her mother was Hannah Griffin and ~~she~~ ^{who} married first a Monk (regardless of what order is given in the pension application) and had three children and then married c. 1832 to a Whitehead who apparently after the birth of ~~g~~ two daughters either died or disappeared. The only clue is the Rankin Co. Miss. Census for ~~1830~~ 1830 which shows Hannah Monk age 30-40 with five children in the household. Also in that county is a James Whitehead age over 60 who had a male 20-40 in the household but also a female of same age so may have been married and also a John Whitehead age 20-40 with 1 male under 10 and 1 female 10-20. No I see by my correspondent that the 20-40 female in the household of James Whitehead is Elizabeth who married John W. Byrd. Anyway as you can see I have not gotten very far. I've tried to trace who the Monk husband was also but have had no more luck.

Oh yes: Sanders: Marcella Flynora Entrekin d/o Thomas Geather Entrekin ~~2~~ (my husband's great grandfather) m. 2 Nov. 1876 Burl Duncan Berry s/o Absolom Berry and Lavicia Frazier d/o Saunder Frazier. Now what that has to do with the price of eggs (if anything) I don't know. Just thought I'd throw it in. Berry's from Simpson Co. Miss. go back to S.Car.

Thanks for your time and attention. If you should find anything on the Hollingsworth's mentioned I'd appreciate the copy. Let me know what I owe you for it.

Sincerely,

Antoine

Above not one of my best efforts. Sometimes my fingers get minds of their own. However, if I waited for one of my good days I'd still be waiting to get started on genealogy!

Gail, more. Hollingsworth, hereafter referred to as H, were an old Saxon family who settled in NE Cheshire, 1022. They purchased Manor & named H. Manor. Name represents a locality, near Mottram. Annal dating from the Norman Conquest speak of the hundred of Macclesfield or maxfield, known in the Domesday survey as "the hundred of Hamstan" & one of the manors mentioned in these ancient books is that of H Manor, situated on the edge of the great woods of Macclesfield. Further record speaks of visitation by official heraldy in 1580 includes John H, Gent and Robert H among the gentry residing in the hundred of Macclesfield. Further record speaks of Robert H of H Hall who was magistrate for Co. Chester and Landcaster. Church & Hall stand today. Late owner Captain Robert H, last rep. of the English branch of the family died 1865. Estate 625 acres value 20,000 pounds. Crest in sky blue with silver band bottom left to upper right, with 3 holly leaves and red berries w/each leaf. Above is stag, recalling the Saxon Earls of Cheshire H came from 2 words, holly and worth, meaning farm of hollytrees. Motto "Learn to suffer what must be borne" refers to taxation by Hugh Lupus, Norman Earl, of the free men of H. and the seven manors that made up Macclesfield. Probable that H went to Ireland from England with other planters early in 17th century. Valentine came to New World from Ireland 1682, the year William Penn arrived in Delaware. Later, nancy

Nancy, Valentine Hollingsworth certainly had a lot of descendants! I'm another one. He was my 7th great grand father. I got my info from the book "Descendants of Valentine Hollingsworth" by J.A.Stewart. I have a couple of items in addition to your data. Ann Calvert's mother was Jane Glasford. Thomas H., the 3rd child of Valentine H. and Ann Ree md. Margaret Calvert who died 1 Aug 1687. Thomas was my 6th gg father. Thomas' 2nd wife, Grace Cook was born 1663 the dau of William Cook and Elizabeth Fox. The Cooks were from Concord, PA. Their 4th child, Thomas, my 5th gg father, was born 23 Dec 1698 at New Castle, DE or Chester, PA. He md Judith Lampley in 1722 or 1723 at Kennett Square, Chester, PA. She was born in 1700, the dau of Nathaniel d.1 Sep 1753. Their son, Thomas, my 4th gg father was born 13 Dec 1729 at Rockland, New Castle, DE, died 1 Mar 1799. He md. Jane Smith in 1754. She died 6 May 1825. I have 13 children listed for them. Their 5th, Mary was my 3rd gg mother. She was born 29 Aug 1760 at New Castle, DE, md. 4 Jan 1800 to John Purdy at Patrick Co, VA. It seems a little late for her to marry at age 39, but they had at least one child, my 2nd gg father, Caleb Purdy, who md. 22 Apr 1820 at Patrick Co, VA, Satyra Jones, the dau of John Jones and Nancy Webb. And that's where I lose the Hollingsworth line. I descend from their son John Anderson Purdy who md. Martha Custer in 1840. Their 11th child was my grandfather, William Morris Purdy, who md. Laura Alice Mills in 1885. Their 6th child, Alma Purdy is my mother who is still alive and kicking at the age of 94. She md. William Greenlee in 1920. And I am Ann Greenlee Peterson, living in Fla. and dabbling in genealogy. My dad wrote the book, "The Descendants of Edward Greenlee of W. Va." in 1956. Both he and Mother were interested in searching out their family histories. I am the happy recipient of all their files!!

I appreciate all the info you wrote on the Hollingsworth line. The old history was new to me. Thanks.
